Dear Stan:

We feel that an apology is due you for the delay in getting you a settlement for your consignment in our recent GRAND CENTRAL AUCTION SALE.

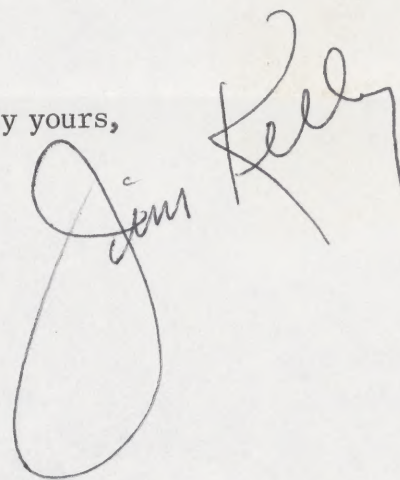

Due to conditions over which we had no control at the time, it was impossible to get the Grand Central material in the mail before November 15th. Consequently this, plus the slowness of the mails, has thrown payments from ten days to two weeks later than normal, making it impossible to give you an accurate settlement within the agreed time.

We certainly hope you will bear with us as we have every reason to believe that we will have a report and settlement to you within the next ten days.

Many thanks for your courtesy and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES KELLY

Dear Stan:

Just a hurried answer to your letter of January 6th. I realize that you did not make any money or as a matter of fact that you lost money on the consignment and by the same token Paramount did not make anything either.

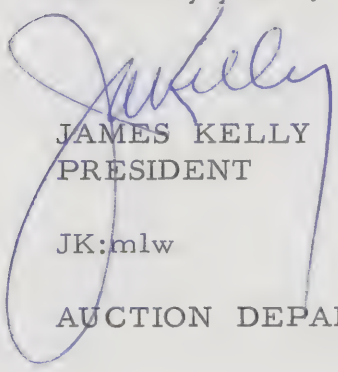

In making the settlement I felt I was favoring you by not charging any commission on coins protected but charging only for those sold. We actually had bids which I felt too ridiculous to consider (such as the bid of $410 on the 1848 Cal) - but they were bids. Had I started them on the floor you would have protected them. If we had not charged you the 5% your total cost would have been more than what it is at the present, but it would have still been within the strict 5% and 15% which we agreed upon.

The fact that I started some of these coins at higher prices (which I felt were minimum or somewhat in line with what you had told me you would have to have for them) did not mean that we did not have any bid on the coins. The fact was that the bids were just unacceptable, in my opinion. The first time we have an opportunity to get together we will talk this over personally and I am sure that we can arrive at a mutual understanding. Perhaps we can work things out so as to include a number of your coins in future sales. At present the California Sale has already been completed and we have more than enough material for the Dallas.

Hoping to have an opportunity to see you in the near future at which time we will talk things over (maybe over a little better steak than we had in Chicago), I remain

Sincerely yours,

JAMES KELLY

Thanks for your letter of May 23.

Unfortunately, we have had no new shipments of gold. Nothing exciting at all.

As a matter of fact, we do not have any 1854-O $10 Gold in stock.

I think the 1913 Nickel could be rather exciting during the ANA.

It is my hope that you and Milt can come to Ohio sometime after school is out. I don't know that we will have anything exciting in gold, but at least we can browse around and have some leisure time together.

At the present time I am not aware of anyone who could use the 1879-CC Eagle in the condition you specified. I have several customers looking for this coin but it must be Extremely Fine or better.

I would like to advise you that Mr. Kelly has just completed a fabulous catalog for the A.N.A. It has over 3,000 lots of high-powered material! This catalog should certainly be one of the auction highlights during the year.

We will be very glad to see you in Miami and also would enjoy having you and Milt come down before that time.

Do you keep any inventory of common-date gold at all? We frequently have requests for BU common-date pieces — recently, common-BU Indian $5's and a single common-BU $1 Gold Piece. Please let me know if you can supply me from time to time on this sort of material.

Thank you so much for your past courtesy.

Dear Stan,

It certainly was a pleasure to be with you last week in New York.

I get the feeling that I am somewhat of a piker when it comes to wheeling and dealing when I watch you in action. At the present time, I do not believe I will be at Central States. However, I will let you know as soon as the gold is available and possible you can coordinate it with your trip to Chicago,

I have contacted my client on the 1920-S and he is not interested. The thought just occurred to me that if you would like to send me some gold on consignment, I would be very happy to run it in one of our ads in Coin World. I would need the gold for approximately 30 days in order to cover the ad. This is just a thought. If you are not interested let me know and I will ship the 1920-S right back to you.

My best wishes.

Dear Stan,

Thank you for your letter of June 7.

I certainly don't want to create a problem but, it was my understanding you would be able to pay for the double eagles in about 30 days. Therefore, I did not think I would have any problem.

However, I guess I must tell you what I am faced with. Our fiscal year ends June 30, and our company is on a technical cash basis. Therefore, if payment goes beyond June 30, I am going to have a problem with our auditors.

I don't want to give you a hard time on this but, is there anything you can do to help me. If not, possibly the answer would be to return the coins that you cannot sell and pay for by that time. I know at the time we made the deal, it was for all six pieces and I much prefer this. Why don't you give me a call at your convenience so that we can talk about it.

All of our good gold went with Jim Kelly to ANA. Will let you know when he gets back.

I would be happy to have some gold on consignment if you can afford to give me prices so I can stand the expensive ad costs in Coin World. You cannot afford to advertise in there for 5% or 10% there is no profit left after you run it 2 or 3 times. I will be sending in a new gold list on Tuesday Aug 31st. If you want please rush me a list so I can include it. Then send coins separately.
